Letter to Peter Bombard, Barre, Vt.

Dear Sir: Have you found this out? You need less of Devote lead and zinc for a job than of anything else; less gallons; less money.

M. A. Thomas, painter, Lyndonburg, Va., has found it out; he writes: "The first job I did with your paint I estimated 37 gallons; had 12 gallons left over. Since then I have not used any other kind of paint but Devote lead-and-zinc; I recommend it to all my customers. When I commence a job, I tack up a card reading as follows: M. A. Thomas, contractor; Devote Paint."

Putting it on costs two or three times as much as the paint. Have you found this out? You can paint Devote in less time; less time; less money.

Have you found this out? Devote wears longer than anything else.

You don't object to long time between jobs. Your customer likes it. And you like what he likes. It keeps your customers.

Yours truly,
F. W. Devote & Co.

August 31st a Republican rally will be held here. The voters will have a chance to hear James Wilson, D. J. Foster and A. J. Maxham. At present it needs some "stir" to get out a large vote, and unless there is a spirited representative fight the vote will fall below the normal. J. B. Wells is the first candidate to file his nomination papers. He is particularly interested in the good roads and double taxation issues.

The Sun.

If the sun were hollow it could hold 500,000 globes the size of our earth, and an eye capable of viewing 10,000 square miles an hour would require fifty-five years to see all its surface.

Cotton.

Cotton has been cultivated since time out of memory. One of the presents received by Jacob, Joseph's father, from the royal hand of Pharaoh was a cotton rope.

COSTS NOTHING UNLESS CURED

A Fair Offer Made by Rickert & Wells to All Sufferers from Catarrh.

Rickert & Wells are selling Hyomei on a plan that has caused considerable talk among their customers.

The plan is different from that followed by other remedies, but the remedy itself is different also. This treatment for the cure of catarrh has such an unusual record of cures to its credit that Rickert & Wells offer to refund the money if it does not give the desired benefit. This is certainly one of the fairest offers that can be made and anyone who has catarrh and does not take advantage of it is doing himself or herself an injustice.

The Hyomei treatment consists of a small hard rubber inhaler that can be carried in the vest pocket or purse, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei. The complete treatment costs but $1.00 and as the inhaler will last a lifetime the medicine is very inexpensive. Many people who have used it write that for the good Hyomei has done them they would willingly pay thousands of dollars.

Extra bottles of Hyomei can be procured for use with the inhaler at 50c.

Do not suffer any longer with tickling, smarting, burning, eye-watering troubles that afflict those who have catarrh. Hyomei will cure you, but if you should not find it adapted to your case, Rickert & Wells will return your money.

POLITICAL QUIPS.

The political statistician, like the president, is entertaining, but the audience knows it is all sleight of hand.—Baltimore Sun.

Scientists say that this season the sun's rays have lost 10 per cent of their heat. But things will still be warm enough as soon as the presidential campaign gets fairly under way.—Atlanta Journal.

It would seriously upset American campaigning methods if a candidate should be nominated who did not have broad verandas and spacious lawns. Imagine visits to a candidate who lived in a flat!—Providence Journal.

Tusks and Billiard Balls.

The average number of billiard balls cut from the tusks of an elephant is ten.
